

Osprey

Osprey live near rivers and streams of the Northeast and feed almost exclusively on fish, which they catch with their claws by diving into the water. Osprey build their nests in the tops of tall trees and on the top of telephone poles. Their only natural enemy is the bald eagle.

